

Why Military Spouses Choose CSU

CSU respects the sacrifices made by spouses of military men and women to protect the freedoms of this nation. Many spouses face the challenges of raising a family, maintaining a home and job or searching for work while their partner is deployed.

To help spouses attain more for themselves and their families, CSU offers various opportunities to use education to achieve their career goals:

» Tuition Discount

» CSU offers a 10% tuition discount to spouses and children of active-duty military and veterans.

Scholarships

MyCAA

Military spouses can qualify for up to $4,000 in Military Spouse Career Advancement Account (MyCAA) Scholarships toward their education. Our quality, self-paced online classes provide the flexibility and portability required within the military lifestyle and enables spouses to continue their education, even when relocated.

Hero Behind the Hero Scholarship

CSU recognizes the sacrifices made by the family members of America's military men and women and public safety personnel (firefighters, law enforcement officers, EMTs and dispatchers). Eight scholarships are awarded each year, with four awarded to spouses or children of National Guard or active-duty military members and four awarded to spouses or children of public safety personnel. For complete details, visit ColumbiaSouthern.edu/Hero.

For additional information about other military spouse scholarships, please visit ColumbiaSouthern.edu/Scholarships.

ColumbiaSouthern.edu/Apply

1| Apply

Submit your application for admission online by visiting ColumbiaSouthern.edu/Apply or call an admissions representative. There is no application fee for military members and veterans.

2| Evaluate

Submit transcripts and certifications for a comprehensive academic evaluation. This includes previous high school and college transcripts, CLEP, DANTES, GED official scores, JST or CCAF transcripts and any military certificates that may qualify for college credits.

3| Enroll

After reviewing your Degree Action Plan, either use your Installation Education Center or your branch-specific automated enrollment system to choose your first class.

4| Choose Payment Plan

Military members and veterans can pay tuition via military tuition assistance and the VA Flex Payment Plan. Visit the CSU website for additional payment options.

- » Tuition assistance may be available for military personnel through DANTES.
- » VA requires that you fill out the appropriate paperwork on the Veteran Affairs website to qualify for any payments under the GI Bill®.
